SUPPORT THE MONTFORD POINT MARINES WITH YOUR Program Booklet Sponsorship Ad Request

The Montford Point Marine Association is selling ads for our commemorative banquet program booklet to be available on Sunday, February 20, 2011. All proceeds go towards the support of this special annual event and annual program activities. Your support is kindly appreciated this year and all previous years if you are a regular supporter of this historic event.

This year's banquet will be held at Karas House 23632 Plymouth Road, Redford, Michigan beginning at 5:00 PM. Keynote speaker will be National Montford Point Marine Association President James Averhart, Commanding Officer, Brig Security Battalion, Quantico, VA. This years banquet is expected to draw up to 200 persons who will come to attend from all over the nation, including ranking military officials and dignitaries, veterans and military organizations, JROTC, students, educators, historians, journalists, media and the press, police organizations, business and corporate executives, and the community at large. Of course, all marine supporters, detachments, and units are welcomed to submit ads according to the following program advertising rates:
